

The Broadstone Music Series first ever Summer Festival is being held in collaboration with the Wessex Festival.

Dance at our Ceilidh, listen to Dorset folk stories from Tim Laycock, enjoy an evening of music & wine, hear the Moonlight Swing Band, or come to the Recitals for Wrigglers...

We guarantee that there is something for everyone of every age!

Throughout the week, Broadstone Art Society will be taking part in live drawing & painting and look out for our special participation days coloured green in the programme.

For our grand finale concert we will be joined by Hurn Court Opera, conducted by Lynton Atkinson, and Sam Hanson.

Registered charity no. 1171893
Patron: Tasmin Little

Supporting music development through performance and tuition since 2011

Founded by Poole Society for Young Musicians in 2009, Broadstone Music Series brings to the area an imaginative and diverse programme of concerts, recitals, workshops, and masterclasses for local young musicians, designed to enhance and develop their practice. In 2015, the BMS Summer School launched to great success.

Tickets can be booked in advance for all concerts. To reserve tickets, join the mailing list, or for further information regarding any of the events and workshops please contact us:
